

I CARE ABOUT WI LAND+WATER'S MISSION: HOW CAN I HELP?

It is the mission of WI Land+Water to support the county Land Conservation Committees and Departments to help landowners and users meet their objectives while protecting our common economic and environmental infrastructure - land and water resources.

VISIT

WWW.WISCONSINLANDWATER.ORG

- Participate in conservation trainings
 - Email penny@wisconsinlandwater.org to sign up for the training newsletter
- Subscribe to our newsletter
 - Conservation success stories, project updates & more

COUNTY CONNECTIONS

Share your thoughts, knowledge or experiences with county conservation staff at:

a Land Conservation
Committee (LCC)
Meeting

Visit your county's website to find
meeting times

an Area Association Meeting

Visit
wisconsinlandwater.org/events/calendar

Staff work with landowners to provide conservation planning assistance and protect local lands and water.

YOUTH EDUCATION

Get youth started on their adventures in conservation.

Envirothon: join the ultimate middle and high school environmental science challenge!

Poster & Speaking Contests: share a creative message about conservation

Conservation Camps: foster an appreciation for nature and have fun in the process

goo.gl/Upoz1d

TECHNICAL STANDARDS

Technical standards provide guidance to ensure conservation practices are implemented effectively.

Subscribe to the Standards Oversight Council's listserv to:

- Recommend standards to be updated
- Provide input on standard updates
- Receive the latest standard updates

www.socwisconsin.org

BECOME AN ASSOCIATE MEMBER

Stay informed and connected!

Individuals and organizations can receive updates and partnership opportunities as Associate Members ($100). Email info@wisconsinlandwater.org for more details.

facebook.com/wisconsinlandwater