

Healthy Wetlands - Navigating Climate Change

Sunday, September 19, 2021

11:30 AM

Meet in Myrick Park at Karen's Outdoor Classroom

(north of the Nature Center)

Photo Credit: La Crosse Tribune

How are wetlands affected by climate change?

What role does our La Crosse River Marsh play in lessening the carbon released into the atmosphere?

Tracy Hames, Wisconsin Wetland Association, will answer these questions and more as we take a leisure 1 mile stroll on the Cottonwood and the Grand Crossing trails. All are invited to join in this free guided walk.

First Congregational
Church, UCC, La Crosse