

Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP)
Division of Agricultural Development
PO Box 8911, Madison, WI 53708-8911

Wisconsin Farm Center

Hours: Monday – Friday, 7:45 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Phone: (800) 942-2474

Team Email: farmcenter@wisconsin.gov

Video Overview: DATCP's Wisconsin Farm Center - YouTube

Additional Info: Wisconsin Farm Center Handout

Free and Confidential Services include:

- Financial Consulting
- Transition Planning
- Conflict Mediation
- Veteran Farmer Assistance
- Veterinary Diagnostic Analysis
- Farmer Wellness Program

Farmer Wellness Program

Video Overview: Wisconsin Farm Center: Healthy Farm, Healthy You - YouTube

Additional Info: Farmer Wellness Program Handout

Other State and National Info: Mental Health Resources

Counseling Services

- 24/7 Wisconsin Farmer Wellness Helpline; (888) 901-2558
 - Around-the-clock support for farmers struggling with suicidal thoughts, depression, anxiety, and other mental health challenges.
- Tele-Counseling Sessions; (888) 901-2558
 - Farmers and their family members can receive free, confidential, and unlimited sessions from a licensed mental health professional online or by phone.
- Counseling Vouchers; (800) 942-2474
 - Farmers and farm family members can obtain in person counseling services from a participating mental health provider in their local area at no cost.

Online Farmer and Farm Couple Support Group

Focused on bringing farmers and farm couples together in a safe space to share challenges and offer encouragement, comfort, and advice.

8 p.m. | 2nd Tuesday of every month | Will not take place during the months of July, Aug., or Sept.

Register Here

8 p.m. | 4th Monday of every month

Register Here

Rural Realities Podcast

Provides expert advice that can help farmers reduce stress, improve finances, implement effective farm family communication skills, and more.