The Producer-Led Watershed Protection Grants Annual Workshop is for producer-led grant recipients throughout the state to network, brainstorm, share success stories and learn from each other on what works and hasn't in their watershed projects. This year, experts will also discuss how producer-led groups can be most successful regarding research and demonstration trials, increasing participation and tracking progress.

All producer-led grant recipients, group members and their collaborators are invited to attend but at least one member from each group is required.
